WOMAN AS VARIABLE AS THE ASPEN LEAF!

LOVED DOG MORE; CHOSE DEATH HER HUSBAND LESS

Mrs. Fannie Surdam Stelle Bradley Tells Why Her Marriage with the Doctor Was Annulled.

TROUBLE.

of the marriage of Mrs. Fannie ple sleeve. She was in the drawingom suit at the Rotel Bartholdi, attended by Chika and her maid. Holding the little Japanese terrier's o him, had Chica on a can him? And who ranged the annulment. four months after your marriage declaror life itself, and that the dog must who she says is an old friend.

I shall never marry him or

"That was what Ds. Bradley did." else in my life, she said. "I hav ind Mrs. Stelle. "We knew I loved him, had Chika on a chair with a Sarat Ka, who is my friend, and he as

HIS WIFE CETS FATHER IN CHECK A MILLION. CIRL MARRIES.

Aids Young Couple

in Love.

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 18,-The Board of Health discovered a case of Frederick Barrette and family occupone of the tenements, and all the in mates of the house were immediatel

tine was established, and thereby es any, and the girl knowing he could of get away from the house for some ime, consulted her sweetheart, and procured a license and were married.

Word was then sent to the young wo man's home of what had been done

Barrette was furious, and fought the quarantine guard, but was held in check.

The newly married pair think th

RISKS LIFE FOR CHILDREN.

knap's Runaway Team.

ney hastened to City Clerk Saunders, quarantined.

For $12 Mentioned in Deeds Mrs. Butler Is Given Much Property.

J D Butler a well-known real-estate this afternoon transferred real estate in the upper part of the city, valued at small-pox at No. 217 Cartier stree nearly $1,000,000, to his wife. Carrie M. Butler, for the nominal sum of 512.

and in each case $1 was given as the consideration for the title. The prop-erty is encumbered to the extent of gie, was not at home when the quaran six, 885.

World Wants Save Money, Get Results!

Paid Help Wants in to-day's World.

Paid Help Wants in the 13 other N. Y. papers combined

ARTIFICIAL PLOW-APPRENTICES .... BOOKKEEPERS BRAIDERS .... BLACKSMITHS BUTCHERS CANVASSER CARRIAGE PAINT COMPOSITORS ... HAMBERMAIDS CHAMBERMAIL COOKS... COOKS...

.... 19 IMPROVERS JANITORS LAUNDRESSES .. 6 LADIES TAILORS MILLINERS MEN OPERATORS PRESSERS PHOTOGRAPHERS SALESLADIES

TUCKERS
WAIST HANDS
WAITERS
WAITERS
MISCELLANEOUS

pils were playing to the vacant lots ad act of Charles Schriner, editor of the Sunday Chronicle, several of the chil dren would have been injured, when the blucky editor threw himself bridle. The horses kept on in their mad terror. Finally the horses were brought

The problem in book-selling is to bring the author and the reader together. This problem the International Association as solved at the opening of the twentieth century, and the first they have in store for the public—and, like Carl Breitman, they did the century, and the first they have in store for the public—and, like Carl Breitman, they did the century, and the first they have in store for the public—and, like Carl Breitman, they did the century, and the first they have in store for the public—and, like Carl Breitman, they did the century, and the first they have in store for the public—and, like Carl Breitman, they did the century, and the first they have in store for the public—and, like Carl Breitman, they did the century, and the first they have in store for the public—and, like Carl Breitman, they did the Chinese Minister, arrived in Chicago to-max was unforcing from heart falure, induced by the blood poison, and that the could not live.

The deficer thoroughfares, fich and Madison was wisinfering from heart falure, induced by the blood poison, and that he could not live.

See the English language is spoken, leaver the English language is spoken, propose doing it let them visit Wana-lever the English language is spoken, leaver the best, language is spoken, language is spoken, leaver the best, language is spoken, leaver the best, language is spoken, language is

Mrs. Carroll Dreaded Being Confined in a Sanitarium.

LAMP EXPLODED; SHE DIED.

Mrs. Margare, Farrell, of No. 137 Cler. nont avenue, Brooklyn, died in th

WORLD'S AGAINST HER.

Evens, eighteen years old, who Paris green at her boarding-house, No. 46 Belmont avenue, Newark, this morn-ng. The physicians at the City Hos-sital say she is likely to die.

MRS. ENRICHT TELLS OF SUIT.

Papers Served at Her Miss Healy Entered a Father's Funeral, She Says.

case were so complicated that Mrs. Enright finally decided to relate her con-

"In the first place, James S. Morgan. who, without ground for it, obtained the judgment against me for over $2,000. is a distant connection of my husband's are four years ago.

No. 60 Manhattan avenue, late one night, and took the child, a pretty little girl, While I was at the funeral of my other papers were served upon mesult for $2,200 brought by Morgan. The dignant while the proceedings were on sked me and naturally protes ed. But after I had read it, and Judge Scott did not threaten to lock me up.

HEIRS MAY COMPROMISE.

Millionaire Duryen's Children En deavoring to Reach Settlement.

The Edgar Duryea will case was not alled in the Supreme Court of Nassan ounty to-day, and will not be up for It is understood that the plaintins are deavoring to settle the case since the ecent ruling of Justice Dickey. The suit is brought by the daughters of the have been sent in, amounting to $11.

EUGENE REYNAL IMPROVES.

Man Who Was Married While III Grows Stronger.

ition of Eugene S. Reynal reducy Farm Manor, the residence of to a standstill and Mr. Schriner sank to the ground from exhaustion. He was carried to his home and put to bed. The list strength of the badly bruised about the body.

Was pronounced very favorable this charles Stein four verts on, of No. 330 East Strength of the patient, says that Mr. East Shmidt, who is attending the patient, says that Mr. Eavonal is a great deal better, and in fact that be considers him new out of danger.

Mrs. Reynal is now almost entirely West Twenty-sixth streets. langer.
Mrs. Reynal is now almost entirely cell.

MRS. TONKIN FAILS TO BRING SON INTO COURT

TO AN ASYLUM.

Claims He Is of Age and Not Under Her Legal Care, a View the Judge Shared.

A DARING SPY.

Mill and Led Out

tered. Going up to one of the bosses of their way. Every one of the girls shut off her loom, and with the leader cheers of the faithful on the outside.

She knows that she can never get a job with the firm. She says: "I have the doy of Frank & Dugan called at the nomes of the strikers while they were away and prevailed on their parents to force their daugnters to return.

"That's the only reason why four of them deserted us for a time to-day."

AID FOR JOHN ADDELSON.

Evening World's Kind Hearted

Renders Send Money. The misfortunes of poor John Addelson, of No. 385 East Ninety-seventh street, touched the hearts of sympa-thetic Evening World subscribers who

Three contributions for the man's aid

J. M. Pintz. . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 5.00 Guest at Savoy ........ 5.00

Four New Small-Pox Cases.

Charles Steib four years old, of No. 221

The following cases of small-pox were read of them.

ie little scheme of the bosses shouted Lawyer A. H. Kaffen- that her young husband was not to be ## MET SAPHO ON TRAIN; WILL WED ON TENTH PROPOSAL.

Rich Ranchman Found His Fate When Express Was Halted in Mid-Prairie by an Accident.

by the advance agent of the Frank Dan lels Opera Company.

vent to the Waldorf-Astoria, while Miss West Twenty-sixth street. But she Antonic last Friday after having placed a marcuise ring on the third finger of Miss Lynden's left hand. The marriage will be celebrated about Easter time.

oposed marriage, but was repuised He owns many steers in Texas, and until the final appeal. Then he has a large ranch near Fort Sill, Indian was accepted and departed for the Cattle Men's Convention at San Antonio last Friday after having placed years. She played the leading role in days. Never have we deviated from this policy, and we do so now, only owing to a condition favorable to our patrons.

SAY THEY'LL OUST MRS. HALL.

A break in woollen prices gave us an unexpected chance to buy a great stock of the new spring all wool fabrics at a low figure. It occurs just toward the end of our "between seasons" sale, and gives us the opportunity to go on with the special price for a short time longer. $12.00 for Spring Suit or Top Coat, including the Swell Raglan.

Every pattern known to the trade to select from.

IMPORTANT-Ugscrupulous neighbors are trying to entice our customers by imitating our methods. Look for building covered with flags of all nations and pink signs.

VACCINE VIRUS FATAL.

fects of Blood Polsoning.

IRISH PARADERS CHEER A BOER.

Mayor of Limerick Also Takes Part in St. Patrick's Day Demonstration.

until she came back. Miss Healy then thirty bands and the cheers of a hus-went to the back of the mill and endired thousand or more enthusiastic

When the boss turned his back Miss dotted with the Irish emblem. Thou-Healy went over to the deserters and samily wore sprigs of shamrock on their in a short talk showed them the errors clothing and the more patriotic deco-

Thousands of patriotic rons of the Remeal bits paraded up Pitth avenue of the Afternoon to the stirring times of the Afternoon to t

Hibernians, of New York, The parade moved up Fifth avenuo Fiftieth street, crossing to Madison venue, thence to Fifty-first street passed the risidence or Archbishop Corrigan, moving up Fifty-first street to Fifth avenue again. There was an unbroken line of march from that point to One Hundred and Twentleth street, where the column moved back to Mad-and Twenty-sixth street, to Second avenue and Sulzer's Park. The parading Irishmen received a Berhaps the most conspicuous individuals in the St. Patrick's Day parade were Mayor Daly, of Limerick; Commandant Sneeman, of the Boer army, and O'Donovan Rossa.

Mayor Daly rode in a carriage drawn by four white horses and wore about his mack the kolden chain of his office. He was generally recognized and applauded. For Mr. Rossa there was muon enthus the ment, clebrated the mass, whin any limit, clebrated the mass, whin any limit, clebrated the mass, whin any the quick-witted Miss Healy, the leader, soon came to the rescue.

Calling the girs to one side she told them to prevent others from going in until she came back. Miss Healy then thirty bands and the cheers of a hun-

George Hagan, fifteen years old, o

No. 82 Virginia avenue, Jersey City was killed to-day us the result of vacison avenue and on up to One Hundred cination. He had to be vaccinated to enter the High School. His arm became very sore, but little attention was warm welcome as they moved through paid to it until unnilstakable symptoms the different thoroughfares, rich and of blood poison appeared. A physician

"Before taking any action on the prin-

Mrs. Hall's confidence in the validity of her claims has not been shaken by the action of the heirs in retaining the